

THE INFINITIVE AFTER CERTAIN VERBS
(când două verbe se succed al doilea se pune la infinitiv)

The full infinitive is used after the next verbs :

To agree	to learn	to seem
To claim	to need	to try
To dare	to offer	to want
To decide	to plan	to wish
To expect	to pretend
To fail	to promise
To hope	to refuse
To intend	to resolve

We expect to return late in the summer
She hopes to finish the work within an hour
They learned to understand English quickly
He plans to leave for Europe on the same boat

Certain of these verbs (expect , hope, plan) + full infinitive convey the idea of an future action.