

"ON"

I go to school on Monday
On the 10th of April
On June tenth
On what day
On weekdays
On the supper
On school
On time
On her visit - (in)
On my holiday
On my birthday
On a similar job - (cu)
I spend a little time on English
If he is remarking on the weather - (la)
On Fifth Avenue
On Cherry Street
On television
On phone
On the sofa
On the page
Salt is used on food - (ca)
They knock on the door
They are going on a picnic
I'm not very keen on opera
Everything being done on the most lavish scale
The balcony looks on the park - (spre)
There is a radiogram on the extreme right
Se traduc "la" On coming
 On returning
 On my arrival
 On our return
 On arriving
 On hearing
He's mad on football
I hope he is on form today (he is in good form)
He has already eaten six cakes and is starting on the 7th
He goes on working day after day
He was taken on the staff of a newspaper
When he became rich he turned his back on his old friend]
Perhaps he was down on his luck
He lives on bread and cheese in the attic
Her house was one of the small new cottages on the outskirts of the town
She watched me with a smile on her kind
I was treading on air

on the corner on Long Island
on the floor
on the third floor
on the night train on the wall
on the prowl
on the hunt - (la)
on the sidewalk on the subway on the bus on the boat
on the airplane on the shelf on the table on the radio on foot
on the run - (pe)
on the double

Who is on my side?
We wear mittens on our hands
It is important to get to school on time
Baseball is a game with 9 players on each of two teams
They are online to buy
Call on us
The eggs are soft on the inside and hard on the outside
It looks like a book on birds
He scratched himself on a nail
He shot some rabbits on his hunting trip
I dry my hands on a hand towel
I saw a car with a trailer on it
She played a trick on him
You'll catch your foot on something and start to fall
I'll lunch on grain
They are on opposite sides
A cat has claws on each foot
He wears shoes on his feet
What do you burn on a fire
He has a collar on his shirt
He has cut his finger on piece of glass
There is a door on the house
We have five fingers on the left hand
A hen sits on a nest
The wind blows on the sail
We can play music on the violin
They went on pirate raids (on vacation)
They were sent on a journey
The Viking attacks on England had begun
They destroyed God's church on Lindisfarne
On hearing this - (la)
I'll put him on show
A car loses control on a turn
Brakes out on the number two car
He worked on the puzzle all afternoon
They played football on two different teams
Cars travel on roads
He turned the hose on him
That was poor work you did on the chair you made for me
He is working on the car to make it go
He is pulling on a stick
The weight is hanging down on the cord
If you wanna get in on the deal
I've turned the tables on all of you
They were on the lookout for him
I promised to cut down on my workouts

You can't start school on an empty stomach
They turned their backs on him
She came walking toward him on Heidi's arm
Only on a moonlight night
We'll lose our hold on her
They were on a kill
He was setting sail on a short voyage
He was bent on attacking me
We've got to agree on a solution soon
The first bottle is on me
I'm a journalist on the Daily Wail